Coronavirus Disease – COVID-19 10.03.2020

- The death toll from the coronavirus outbreak is over 4,000 worldwide, with the vast majority in mainland China. There have been more than 113,000 global cases.
- All 60 million residents in Italy are under restrictions, including travel checks, school closures and bans on public events. Saint Peter's Square and Saint Peter's Basilica in the Vatican City are now closed to tourists starting today because of the coronavirus, the Vatican press office said in a statement.
- Iran on Tuesday confirmed 8,042 coronavirus cases, the second-highest number outside of China, after Italy. The Middle East country had 291 deaths from the virus. The vast majority of cases (2,114) were in the capital Tehran.
- More than two months after the coronavirus outbreak emerged in the Chinese city of Wuhan, President Xi Jinping has put on a major show of confidence by visiting the stricken epicenter. The president's visit marks a significant moment in the global outbreak, with new cases of the virus slowing to a trickle in the country where the disease first emerged.
- The US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention says "older adults" and people with serious chronic medical conditions "are at higher risk of getting very sick from this illness." Anyone over 60 and those with underlying health problems should try to avoid places with large crowds.
- The Spanish government, the British Airways have blocked direct flights between Spain and Italy as it looks to stop the spread and of coronavirus.
- Nearby Spain has also seen a rapid rise in confirmed cases to 1,204 and 28 deaths. As of Wednesday, schools and universities in the heavily-hit Basque Country will be suspended.
- The European Parliament is also cancelling "non-core" activities -- including things like committee hearings, seminars, cultural events, and election observation missions.
- The city of Qianjiang in Hubei province says it will "restore normal production and living order soon" in a notice published following a meeting by government officials Tuesday. There was no date set in the announcement but the notice said "all traffic checkpoints in the city will be lifted, all public transportation will be restored, and all enterprises will resume work and production."
- A third death due to the virus was announced on Tuesday, when an 80-year-old woman with preexisting health problems died in a hospital in canton Ticino. The focus in Switzerland has now shifted to protecting the old and the unwell.
- Switzerland has had its third death of coronavirus. The patient from Mendrision, TI, was 80 years old man, he had been suffering from a chronic illness and was considered "high risk."
- Geneva has been at the sharp end of the disruption caused by the new coronavirus. After the motor show, the list of cancelled or postponed conferences and meetings in Switzerland's most international city continues to grow.
