Coronavirus 30.01.2020

- At least 170 people are dead and more than 7,700 cases have been confirmed in mainland China, as the Wuhan coronavirus spreads across Asia and the rest of the world.
- The W.H.O. will meet to decide if the epidemic is a global emergency.
- Tibet reported its first confirmed case. This means that all of China's provinces and territories have now been touched by the outbreak.
- Nearly 60 million people have been under partial or full lockdowns in Chinese cities for a week.
- There are more than 100 confirmed cases in 20 places outside of China.
- Cases recorded in Taiwan, Germany, Vietnam and Japan involved patients who had not been to China. There have been no reported deaths outside China.
- The US, Japan, and several other countries are flying their citizens out of Wuhan.
- Six thousand people are being kept on a Costa Cruises ship in Italy as one passenger shows symptoms of the virus.
- Chinese authorities have given permission for the UK to fly its nationals out of Wuhan.
- Russian airports have stepped up screening of travelers arriving from China to try to identify people infected with the coronavirus.
- Mainland China now has more cases of coronavirus than it had of SARS, a respiratory infection that spread across China in 2002 and 2003 and killed 774 people in 17 countries.
